The supporter also reserves the right to carryover their support to the Society's 2026 Annual Meeting.

Exhibitor Agreement Terms and Conditions

You are hereby authorized to reserve space for the company indicated to exhibit at the SBM 46th Annual Meeting to be held March 26-29, 2025, at the Hilton San Francisco Union Square in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. We understand that the assigned space will be rented at the rate quoted in the SBM 46th Annual Meeting prospectus. We understand further that all space must be paid for in full on or before February 7, 2025. If the assigned space is not paid for in full by the specified date, the space may be reassigned to another exhibitor at the discretion of the SBM Executive Director. We agree to abide by all rules and regulations governing exhibitors set forth in the SBM 46th Annual Meeting Exhibitor Prospectus, which is made part of this contract by reference and fully incorporated herein.

Hold Harmless Clause: The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages and claims arising out of injury or damage to the exhibitor's displays, equipment and other property brought upon the premises of the exhibit facility and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society of Behavioral Medicine, the Hilton San Francisco Union Square, decorator contracted for 46th Annual Meeting & Scientific Sessions, and each of their employees and agents from any and all such losses, damages and claims. In addition, the exhibitor acknowledges that it is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance covering such losses by the exhibitor.

EXHIBITOR AGREEMENT - TERMS & CONDITIONS

Event Discrimination and Harassment

The Society of Behavioral Medicine (SBM) is committed to providing a discrimination, harassment, and retaliation-free environment for all participants in society events. SBM prohibits discrimination or harassment based on actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, body size, disability, race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, age, religion (or lack thereof), marital or parental status, or any other status protected by law ("protected status"). SBM has zero tolerance for any form of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation at society meetings and events.

This policy applies to all SBM events, including those sponsored by other organizations held in conjunction with an SBM event. All participants, including, but not limited to, attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, staff (including venue staff), contractors, vendors and other service providers, and anyone else present at SBM meetings or events, are expected to abide by this policy.

Unacceptable Behavior

Discrimination consists of material, adverse treatment based on a person's protected status. Conduct can amount to prohibited discrimination even when a person does not specifically intend to harm someone else.

Harassment consists of unwelcome conduct of a demeaning, abusive, and/or offensive nature that either (1) constitutes a term or condition of a person's participation in society events (quid pro quo harassment); or (2) substantially interferes with a person's participation in society events or otherwise creates what a reasonable person would consider to be a hostile environment. Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to, physical or verbal abuse of any participant, stalking or threatening any participant, harassing photography or recording of any participant, the use of slurs and epithets, display of disparaging material, display of sexual imagery, inappropriate or unwelcome physical contact, and non-consensual sexual advances.

Retaliation consists of material, adverse action taken against someone because the person reported discrimination or harassment (either on behalf of themselves or another) or because the person participated in the investigation and resolution of a report. Retaliation can occur even if the underlying report of discrimination or harassment is unsubstantiated.

Participants who are asked to stop discriminatory or harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately. Upon receipt of a report of prohibited conduct, SBM retains the right to take any steps deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the event without warning or refund, to end the conduct and maintain a safe and welcoming environment for participants. Further, SBM reserves the right to prohibit anyone who violates this policy from attending any future SBM meeting or event. Misconduct can also result in the revocation of SBM membership, including fellow status.

Reporting Unacceptable Behavior

Any person subjected or witness to discrimination or harassment is encouraged to report such conduct to SBM management as soon as possible and may be asked to file a written report. SBM staff are available for consultation with any meeting or event participant or attendee who believes they have experienced any form of harassment while at any SBM meeting or event. Reports should include identification of the offender (or description); behaviors or actions by that person; circumstances around the incident; day, time, and session; and others present. All written reports will be kept confidential.

Upon receipt of a report, SBM will review the available information, which may include speaking with the persons involved, and determine whether a policy violation has occurred. To the extent any person experiences or witnesses conduct that is criminal in nature, SBM strongly encourages the person to also make a report to law enforcement.

Unacceptable behaviors not reported during the meeting or event may be reported to SBM staff after the conference by contacting Executive Director Lindsay Bullock (lbullock@sbm.org). All complaints will be treated seriously and responded to promptly.

A participant or attendee who believes he or she was falsely or unfairly accused of violating this policy should notify SBM Executive Director Lindsay Bullock (lbullock@sbm.org).
