Better Health Through Behavior Change

Outstanding Dissertation Award

Jennifer L. Moss, PhD; Doctoral Student, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Note: Seven applications were received for this award.

Potential Changes for Awards Next Year

The council agreed to, at a later date, discuss and perhaps propose that the Awards Committee shift the Distinguished Mentor Awards into two awards that are for an early career mentor and a late career mentor rather than a research mentor and a clinical mentor. This being due to a lack of Distinguished Clinical Mentor Award applicants.
