Summary of the November Board Meeting and Planning for the Meeti he Board Session

Dr. Nicole Zarrett reported to the Council that the November Board meeting went very well. The Board was particularly interested in revitalizing the consultation program. A number of marketing ideas were shared that staff will be implementing throughout the year. Also, the Board is exploring the opportunity of recording personal accounts of mentoring within SBM that might be used as marketing tools. Dr. Zarrett also pitched the idea of focusing on leadership for the Meet the Board session. The Board members were enthusiastic about this idea and agreed to participate when called on by Dr. Zarrett. Lastly, the Board is going to looking into a more coordinated webinar program that may include programming from he ETCD.

Review 2017 Awards Timeline and Selection Process

Dr. Zarrett called for the Council members to volunteer to serve as reviewers for one of the award categories. The goal is to have two Council members per award category. During the call and following the call, the following members olunteered to serve as reviewers:

- Outstanding Dissertation Award: Amy Huebschmann
- Distinguished Student Awards: Barbara Stetson
- Travel Scholarships: Jamie Bodenlos and Vicki DiLilo
- Distinguished Mentor Award: Lori Pbert and Karen Oliver
- Excellence in Behavioral Medicine Training Program Award: Valerie Myers

Nominations close on November 15th. The Council will review the awards and makefinal recommendations on the December teleconference.
